THINGS TO REMEMBER WHEN USING THIS BOOK

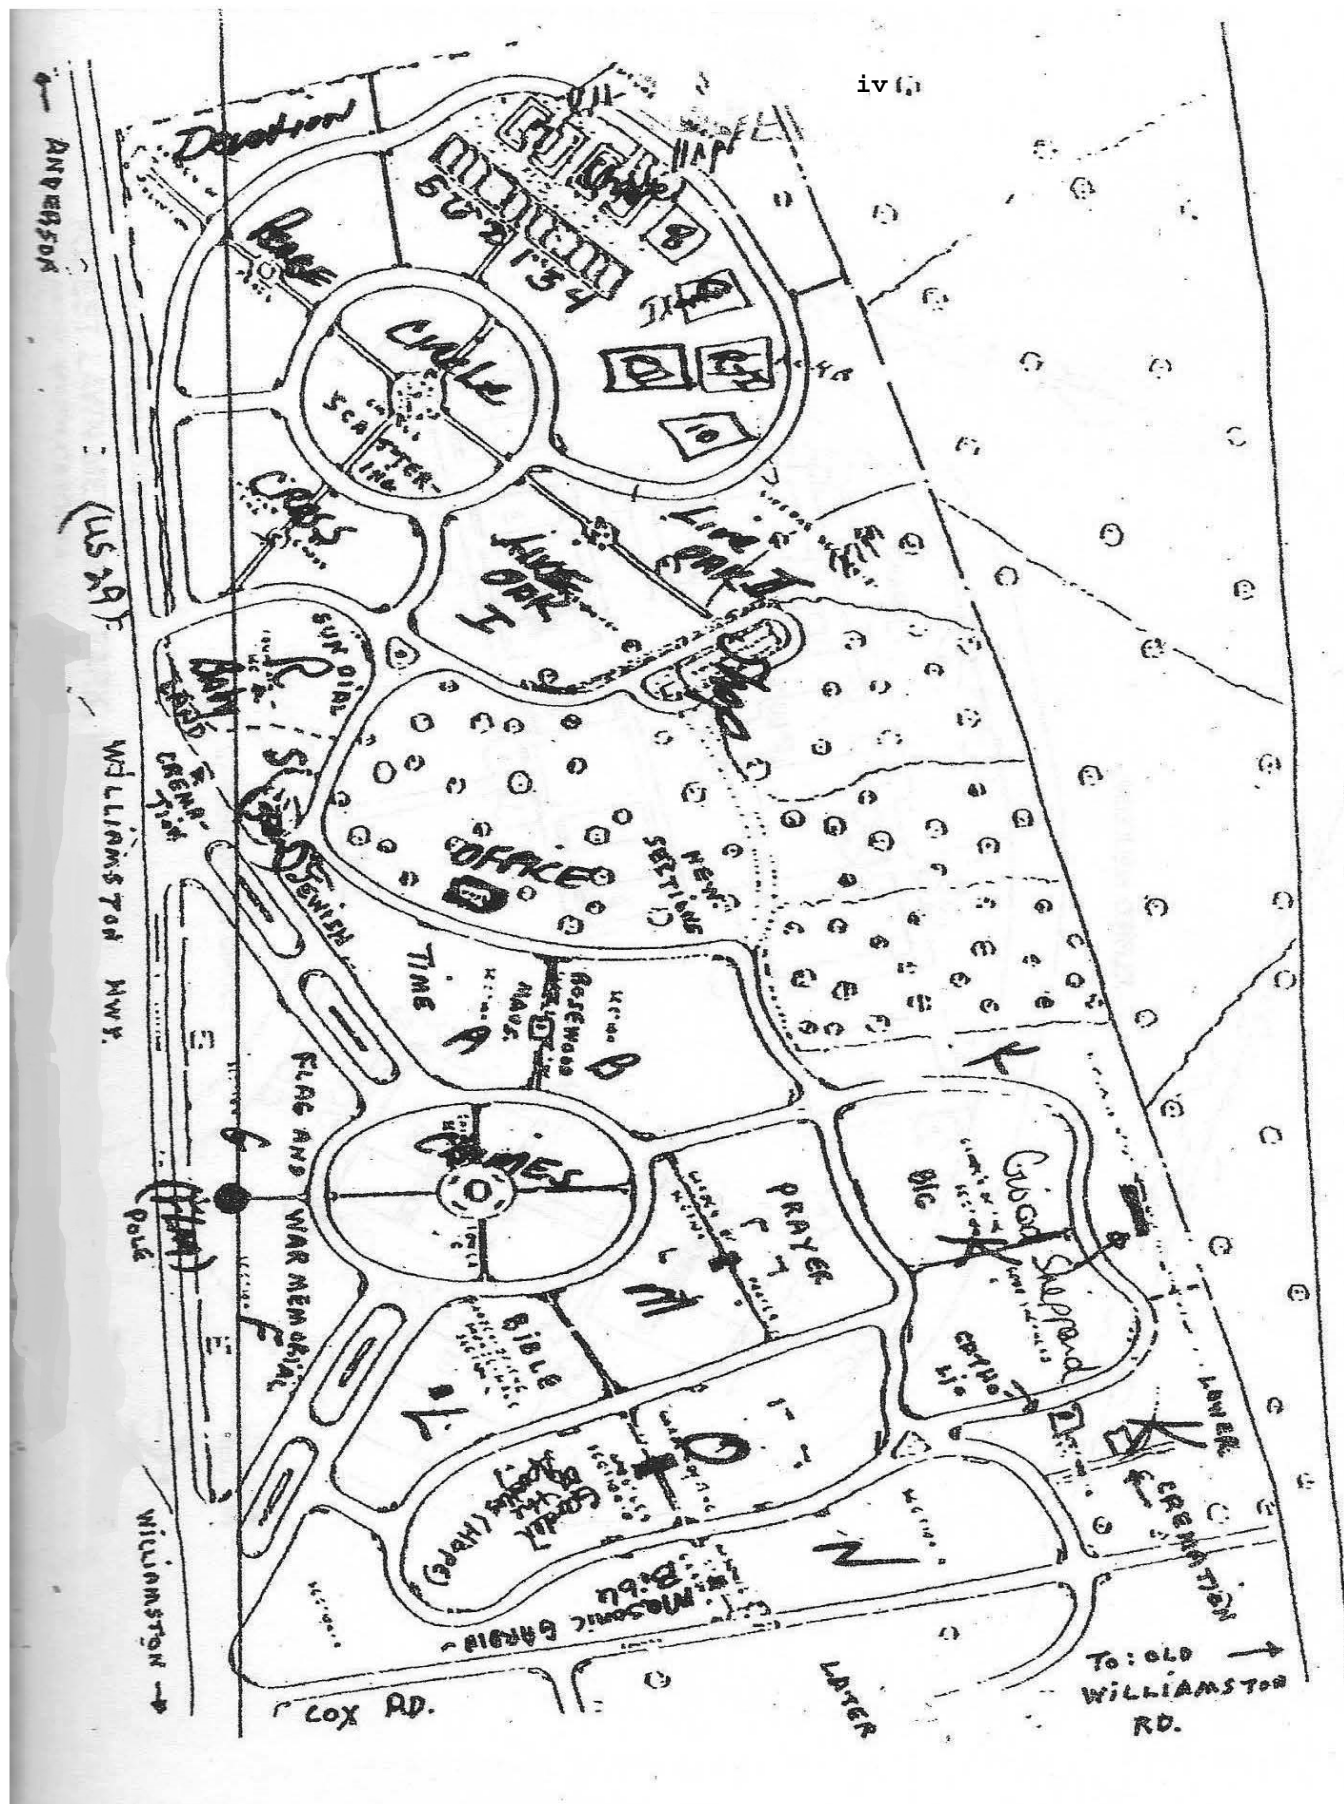

Wayne R. Bratcher began recording the information contained in Volume Nine of the Anderson County Cemetery Books on July 18, 1998. The Chapter published Volume Nine in 2006 containing records for Forest Lawn Memorial Park and Mausoleum from 1998 through 2005. This current Volume Ten contains the listing of burials from January 2006 through December 2015 along with the additional burials that were added to the cemetery from 1998 through 2005 while Mr. Bratcher was recording records for Volume 9.

Oaklawn Memorial Gardens was started in 1974 and later purchased by McDougald Funeral Home. The burials listed herein are from 1974 through December 2015.

The information provided to us for this book only listed the burial dates of the deceased and not the death dates with the exception of the year 2007. Additional dates of death and information such as a nickname or middle initial or name have been added by Joyce Fields Gibson. Joyce researched Find a Grave, the Social Security Death Index and newspaper obituaries in order to obtain and include additional information. Our Research Room does have on file the original information provided by the cemetery office.

In some cases the deceased death occurred a year or more before the burial date. Some reasons this might be true are that some people were cremated but not buried at the time of death and some people were first buried at another cemetery and then reinterred at a later date at Forest Lawn or Oaklawn.

Please note that due to the computer program that the cemetery office uses, if the birth date of a deceased person is not known, a date of January 1 might have been entered but is not the actual birth date of the deceased. While doing your research please double check any dates of birth listed as January 1.
